

The National Ageing Research Institute invites community aged care staff to a 2 day interactive workshop on

Managing Falls in the Community

Tuesday 20 July and Wednesday 21 July 2010

Seminar Room
National Ageing Research Institute
Via gate 4, 34-54 Poplar Road, Parkville VIC

Current evidence, best practice & practical strategies

Providing you with the essential skills to manage falls when working with older people in the community.

Professor Keith Hill
(LaTrobe University)

Dr Briony Dow
(Divisional Director, NARI)

Dr Jenny Schwarz
(Western Health)

Research clinicians with extensive experience

Cost: $495.00 for 2 days
Payment confirms registration

RSVP: Friday July 9, 2010
tel: 03 8387 2148

L.bon@nari.unimelb.edu.au

The importance of falls risk assessment; falls risk minimisation;
and falls reporting

Understanding Person Centred Care

Caring for the person with dementia

What is the contribution of the:

- Environment;
- Medications;
- Nutritional status;
- Psychosocial considerations;
- Sensory deficits; and
- Physical capabilities on falls prevention?

Program includes an

Interactive Falls Prevention Training Expo